Background on Brennan Mulwray

Before his life with Mutant X, Brennan was a small time theif. He would steal anything for a quick buck. He didn't exactly have your typical childhood. He was mostly raised by his mother and his drunken step-father. His real father was shot down in Vietnam and never seen again. Around the age of ten he discovered he had the ability to create electricity. The most he could do was charge a car battery, which is how he started out his thieving career, boosting cars at the age of ten. But as he got older his powers also grew. That's when he "accidentally" ran into the members of Mutant X, and soon, became a member himself.

Quote: “Why didn't you let me blast him?” Roleplaying Brennan Mulwray

Brennan Mulwray is a tough, yet vulnerable, street-smart wiseguy in his late 20s-with the astonishing ability to generate enough electricity from his own body to power a small city. A fast talking cavalier with an ingratiating grin, Brennan is a master of electricity, who can throws bolts of energy from his fingertips. Brennan loves being a New Mutant, throwing off sparks is an absolute blast.
