Charcter Bio - Morrynn Sho'fey is currently a member of the Jedi Council. He trained Qui-Gon Fel in the ways of the Jedi Knight and is still a pretty good friend of the Fel family.

Morrynn Sho'fey possessed a unique personality for a Jedi. He was a cautious individual, even demonstrating reluctance at times. He chose his friends carefully and was slow to trust, coming off as remote and intense. Despite this, he was extremely courageous, bravely risking life and limb on numerous occasions for the Galactic Alliance. In fact, due to his talent as a duelist and Force-user, Morrynn Sho'fey was very prideful, quite secure in his own strength. However, he kept this arrogance in check, humbling himself towards individuals he felt superior, such as Anatres Fel. Morrynn Sho'fey strongly believed in the Jedi's role as the servants of the Alliance rather than its masters, and treated all civilians with respect. He was especially well known for a sharp tongue and an occasional sarcastic interface.

Ultimately, Morrynn Sho'fey's true motivation for all he did was a divergence from Jedi philosophy. His personal belief system was an extremist viewpoint of peace at all costs. In his mind, peace was created by civilization, and he viewed the Allaince as the ultimate civilization, thus developing an attachment towards the institution. He was ultimately willing to do anything to preserve the Alliance, even if it meant violating Jedi philosophy.
