DESCRIPTION:

The Work pod was a one person maintenance and construction vehicle used by the Earth Alliance, IPX and Earthforce. The control cabin of the work pod is of a very similar design to the cockpit of the SA-23E Starfury.

Design Notes

The Work Pods, while not combat spacecraft, would still be equipped with several devices and pieces of equipment for their work, such as two grapnel arms for moving objects (seen in the picture), as well as other tools such as cutting torches and lasers andd other tools for assembly or disassembly.
