Background on Rodney Skinner

??????????? Rodney Skinner, a two-bit cockney thug, prefers the term "gentleman thief." You might want to call him the ULTIMATE thief. Skinner stole his invisibility serum from a brilliant (and somewhat deranged) scientist and prepared himself to be the greatest man of larceny in the 20th century. He didn't realize what a curse this all was going to be. The serum, it turns out, is irreversible. And quickly loses its charm when no one knows you're there.

??????????? Not the type of person to join in causes or bother with "Saving the world," Skinner is in on the League for one reason only. They have promised to cure him of his invisibility and bring him back to the world. But can any one trust an invisible thief who only looks out for one man?

??????????? Even without his cutting-edge serum, Skinner had some skills. Maybe not enough to make him extraordinary, but he could pick locks, hide in shadows and generally make the world unsafe for valuable possessions.

Quote: “Allow me to introduce myself. Rodney Skinner, gentleman thief. Now I thought invisibility would be a boon to my work. But, as you can imagine, it was my undoing. You see, once you're invisible, it's bloody hard turning back.” Roleplaying Rodney Skinner

??????????? Although Skinner seems limited by cowardice, avarice and self-interest, his power makes him an invaluable player in the impossible adventures.
