Description: This multi-armed nanny droid model was produced by Utilitech around the time of the Clone Wars. RO-Z67 was an example of this model.

One of these droids, RO-Z67 was a nanny droid employed by Darth Sidious, Dark Lord of the Sith, during the Clone Wars.

In Sidious' secret facility on Mustafar, RO-Z67 tended to Force-sensitive children kidnapped by Cad Bane to be raised and trained as part of Sidious' army of spies and assassins. When the facility was discovered by Jedi Knight Anakin Skywalker and his Padawan, Ahsoka Tano, Sidious via hologram ordered the droid to evacuate the children to another location and then to disable the facility's gravity support, letting it sink into lava. However, the Jedi managed to rescue the children from the droid and depart before the facility's ultimate destruction, leaving RO-Z67 to be destroyed in the lava.
