Background on the Stalker

During a clash with a Slayer, she was able to exile him to the void. It was only through the use of his natural intelligence he was able to escape, though a couple of centuries had passed.

After many clashes with the Slayer, the Stalker lured her to a cemetery. As the battle went on, the Slayer kept getting the better of him and finally the Stalker, who had shifted into a shadow leapt at the Slayer in an irrational rage. The Stalker had to fully materialize in order to use his “Death Touch” but in fury he materialized too soon, and solidified while passing in part through a gravestone. As a result the Stalker was badly injured.

The Stalker is capable of drawing out the lifeforce of anyone he touches with his hands. He must be in solid form and must touch his victim. Any damage done by this attack will heal him of any damage he has taken.

Quote: “His touch can literally burn the humanity out of you.” Roleplaying the Stalker

The Stalker is a terrifying figure and he knows it. He has become obsessed with destroying the Slayer. He is also known to follow young girls, who are alone at night. Once he has used his abilities to scare them sufficiently he burns their lifeforce out.
