Background on Typhoid Mary

Still a weak and unstable woman, Mary Walker went to live in New York and found a job in an East End brothel. One night, while she was drunk, a hooded young man came in and attacked a client, who had killed his father. The women inside tried to protect the older man and the boy, nervous and scared unwillingly shoved Mary out of a window. Apparently, the shock caused the wreckage of Mary's mind and she started to suffer multiple personality disorders. Now, she could be sweet and shy Mary or wild mad Typhoid Mary, a reckless killer capable of murdering just for fun.

Typhoid Mary started to work for Kingpin and also had a relationship with him, she has never been very selective and the man made Mary Walker seduce Matt Murdock in order to make him suffer when he realised what kind of person Typhoid Mary was. Thus, she made Matt fall in love with her and feel terrible about lying to Karen Page and hired some villains to hit him to death before revealing him her identity.

Eventually, Daredevil had Mary imprisoned in a sanatorium in a desperate bid to heal her, but Mary's personality became even more confused and a new dominating one "Bloody Mary", more savage and scary than the others appeared. Mary Walker tried to finish her life by hiring a mercenary to kill her, but unfortunately Typhoid Mary did the proper thing to be freed and the chosen one in both cases was Deadpool. Since he had promised Terry Cassidy not to kill, Deadpool freed the woman just to have Typhoid Mary on the run, making his life a hell. While struggling with her, Mary fell out of the window and remembered the shock that split her personality and the man who caused it: Matt Murdock. Thus, she decided to go for him and Deadpool came with her thinking of it as therapy. Typhoid Mary was defeated by Murdock but Deadpool took her with him, so she is still free.

As Mary Walker, this woman has no powers, but as Typhoid Mary she has constant fever, telekinetic powers and the ability to seduce any man close to her. She is also an expert in martial arts and a cold blooded killer.

Quote: “He thinks he owns me now. While the fire burns, they never see too clearly. But when the smoke clears, he'll see who owns who.” Roleplaying Typhoid Mary

Typhoid Mary was born with multiple personality disorder, giving her two distinct personalities. Mary is quiet, but Typhoid is a psychotic seductress bent on dominating men by implanting suggestions into their minds.
