Description: The Appazanna Engineering Works Auzituck anti-slaver gunship was a Wookiee gunship used to battle slavers. The interiors were made from wroshyr trees, with sap serving as glue. One such vessel, serving as a freedom fighter against the Galactic Empire, was contracted to meet with the crew of the Ghost by Cikatro Vizago. But by the time it arrived, it had been raided by Trandoshan slavers and left adrift, and the crew had been sold to the Empire. Another gunship later rendezvoused with the Ghost to recover the Wookiee crew they had rescued.[5] The Wookiee bounty hunter Black Krrsantan also owned his own Auzituck gunship during the Galactic Civil War.
