Races D6 / Agana

Agana

Agana are tall snake-like creatures. They have snakelike boides, but their forms become more humanoid at the waistline. They have scaly torsos and arms with long flexible figners. Their faces are vaguelky human but have fangs and green skin. It is not known where they came from originaly, but they are primarily found on the isolated world of Rokurgan where they constantly war with the human inhabitants of that world. Agana do not get along with humans anywhere. Agana, especialy on Rokurgan, have ebcome famous for their use of old fashioned bows and their amazing skill with them. Theyt tend to inhabit forrested areas, and their skin acts as a natural camoflauge for them. Agana is a term from an ancient language meaning 'spirit of the forest'.
