Background:
U.S. Navy SEAL Petty Officer Second Class Luis Alvarez was born in.
He originally joined the armed forces, as he believed he was strong and capable enough to succeed at their highest level.
He went through the Navy SEAL Training Camp at Camp Atterbury. Atterbury features state of the art firing ranges, and the SEALs use those ranges for sniper training.
After completing training he was assigned to a West Coast SEAL Team based in San Diego, California, where he served for sometime. He was then transferred to the SGC.
He is a skilled soldier with a Barrett M82A1 or the SGC standard issue FN P90.
