Description: This Imperial ground vehicle was used by forces loyal to Imperial Governor Marcellin Wessel on the planet Yinchorr.

Wessel used the vehicle to traverse the vast deserts of the planet. When Princess Leia Organa crash landed on the planet, Wessel and a small complement of stormtroopers used the vehicle to track down Organa's location. After finding Organa, who had been captured by another stormtrooper, Wessel prepared to execute the Rebel leader. However, he was interrupted by the arrival of the Millennium Falcon which destroyed the Imperial ground vehicle with a shot from its laser cannons.
