Description: A Goorl was a mammal-like creature that possibly came from Roon.

A Goorl was a hairy creature with the head of a cat and a snake-like body without limbs. A Goorl had two excellent blades on the cheeks and two above the eyes. A Goorl curled up to rest.

In 15 BBY, a Goorl near Gaff was sleeping in the Fortress of Tawntoom. Gaff had Auren and Nilz Yomm confined, but a miniature R2-D2 (by the Molecular disruptor) could slip through the bars, just before the Goorl noticed him. The Goorl then fell down on the sleeping Gaff which greatly startled the beast.
