Description: Torch was an astromech droid with masculine programming owned by Resistance pilot Venisa Doza. He accompanied her on many missions, including to Bakura and Lehon. When the two were captured by Agent Tierny of the First Order, Torch pretended to have been fried and rendered inoperable in order to assist in Doza's escape from the agent's Resurgent-class Star Destroyer, ultimately piloting a TIE/fo space superiority fighter out of the capital ship's main hangar as a diversion.
