

Weapons D6 / Verdant Technologies G

VerdanTech Field Missile Launcher

The GP-9 is Verdant Technologies' fairly popular field missile launcher. The GP, lovingly referred to as the Ground Pounder, is a vehicularly portable launcher 3 tubes tall by 6 wide. The launcher can fire all of its arsenal in 5 seconds in any fire mode. It can fire one rocket at a time at separate targets, which requires preparation to enter the targets in before firing, each row of 6 tubes at a separate target, or all 18 tubes at a single target. The Ground Pounder is capable of leveling a good portion of a city by itself with a heavy yield on each missile and a widespread.
