Description: The Justifier was a starship owned by the bounty hunter Cad Bane. It had a central thruster that was capable of reorienting itself laterally, so that it would align itself horizontally with the ship.[2] When he acquired Omega as a bounty for Prime Minister Lama Su, Cad Bane went to Bora Vio to rendezvous with the Kaminoans to hand the girl over. However, Bane was accosted by the bounty hunter Fennec Shand, who had been hired to prevent the Kaminoan government from acquiring Omega. After a fight with Shand, Bane found his ship sabotaged, leaving him unable to pursue Shand or the Bad Batch
