Description: The Mods referred to a street gang of cyborgs which operated within the Worker's District in the city of Mos Espa on the planet Tatooine. The gang's members, which included Drash and Skad as the ring leaders, rode speeder bikes and modified their bodies with droid components. Unable to find work in order to pay for the high price of water, the gang resorted to stealing from the water-monger Lortha Peel, who brought the youths' activities to the attention of Daimyo Boba Fett. The crime lord confronted the gang; however, after learning of their situation, Fett gave them an offer to work for him. The street gang later assisted Fett in fending off the Wookiee gladiator Krrsantan, who was sent to kill him by the Hutts known as the Twins, and later pursued the majordomo of Mayor Mok Shaiz in a chase through the streets of Mos Espa. When they captured the majordomo, he revealed that the mayor is with the Pyke Syndicate. Skad later staked out the spaceport for reconnaissance, catching the arrival of the Pyke Syndicate operatives and reported this to Boba and Fennec Shand. Afterwards, the Mods combed the streets of Mos Espa for the fugitive mayor. The Mods assisted Boba Fett against the Pykes.
