Creatures D6 / K-lor-slug (Dangerous Vermifo

Name: K'lor'slug
Designation: Non-sentient
Homeworld: Noe'ha'on

Dexterity: 3D+2
Perception: 3D+1
Strength: 4D+1

Special Abilities

Sharp Teeth: Str+1D Damage

Excellent Climbers: K'lor'slugs can climb soft surfaces as easily as they can walk as long as their claws can get purchase on the surface, moving upwards their full move distance.

Move: 12

Description: K'lor'slugs were dangerous vermiforms native to the swamps of Noe'ha'on, and are a species whose appearance was used for one of the holographic pieces in the game dejarik. Pink, tubular beasts, they had suction cup-like mouths and sharp teeth. They were speculated to be swamp dwellers from the Outer Rim Territories. They were also found on Korriban and Taris.

Stats by FreddyB, Descriptive Text from WookieePedia.
Image copyright LucasArts.
Any complaints, writs for copyright abuse, etc should be addressed to the Webmaster FreddyB.