Description: Del Goren was a Human male who served with the Alliance to Restore the Republic during the Galactic Civil War. He was a technician.

Biography
Goren first served aboard the Spiral before taking a post in the Alliance High Command. He was known as a communications and sensors expert, and later served as the communications officer at Massassi Station during the Battle of Yavin. He kept the leaders of Red and Gold Squadrons updated on the course of the battle, and issued them a warning as Black Squadron's TIE/LN starfighters launched from the first Death Star. The Battle of Yavin proved to be a major victory for the Rebel Alliance against the Galactic Empire when Luke Skywalker successfully destroyed the Death Star I.
