

Starships D6 / Cobra-Class Strike Frigate

Cobra-Class Strike Frigate

The Cobra-class Strike Frigate was designed for transporting one to two mobile suite squadrons to a target area, hitting the target, and then either holding the area until reinforcements arrive, or jumping into hyperspace.

These ships are entirely capable of operating alone, but can also be integrated into a larger fleet. The first 9 of these ships formed the 45th Independent Strike Group. So far, 3 other Strike Groups have been formed, based on the success of the original. Wreaking havoc amongst the enemy in the Aldereenia system, these Groups are now being move to other areas of concern.
