Description: Laudica was a Human female from Corellia who worked as a gun-runner during the Galactic Civil War. She was known for her skills as a markswoman, and was one of many criminals who frequented the palace of the Hutt crime lord Jabba Desilijic Tiure on Tatooine. Laudica was present in the palace in 4 ABY when the droids C-3PO and R2-D2 arrived in order to bargain for the life of their master's friend Han Solo. She witnessed several more of Solo's friends subsequently arrive until Jabba sentenced them to die in Tatooine's Great Pit of Carkoon.

Biography

The Human female Laudica was born on Corellia at some point before 4 ABY. During the Galactic Civil War, she was employed as a gun-runner and had developed a reputation for her skills as a markswoman. Laudica was good friends with many other female criminals, including fellow Corellian smuggler Brindy Truchong and the Kiffar con artist Tonnika sisters. Despite her better judgment, she was romantically involved with the Bimm Rayc Ryjerd.

During the war, Laudica became a frequent visitor of the palace of the Hutt crime lord Jabba Desilijic Tiure on Tatooine. She was in the palace in 4 ABY when C-3PO and R2-D2, droids belonging to the Jedi Luke Skywalker, arrived in order to bargain for the life of Han Solo, a friend of Skywalker's who was frozen in carbonite and who hung on the wall of the palace's courtroom. Shortly after the droids' arrival, Laudica watched as Jabba dropped his slave dancer Oola into the pit of his rancor.

Laudica was in the courtroom shortly thereafter when Solo's friend Leia Organa, disguised as the bounty hunter Boushh, arrived with the Wookiee Chewbacca and threatened to destroy the palace with a thermal detonator. Organa stayed her hand and thus won Jabba's favor, but she later freed Solo from carbonite and attempted to escape the palace with him. When Jabba caught and imprisoned them, Skywalker came to the palace to demand their release, and was dropped into the rancor pit himself. He killed the rancor, however, prompting Jabba to sentence him, Solo, and Chewbacca to die in Tatooine's Great Pit of Carkoon. Laudica and many other members of Jabba's entourage followed Skywalker and Solo as they were dragged out of the courtroom.

Personality and traits

Laudica was a skilled markswoman and often carried a blaster pistol. She had many friends, and followed her romantic desires rather than her better judgment by dating Rayc Ryjerd. When Oola was dropped into Jabba's rancor pit, Laudica watched and jeered in delight as she was eaten by the creature.
