Characters D6 / Moff Nikolai Arkanian (Huma

Moff Nikolai Arkanian

Born and raised on Kashan Nikolai Arkanian was taught from day one to eventually take over the family biotech business of Termicorp. For many years he peacefully ran the business until Defendacorp came into town. Believing the intentions of their CEO Arun Brunn to be less than favorable towards his business he faked his own death and framed Mr Brunn for it, effectively sentencing him to death by gladiator matches.

Upon returning, it was clear that Nikolai had changed a bit and was becoming more ruthless after working with Mr Aarlis Nacirem. Eventually, Arkanian sold Termicorp to Kashan Systems for an undisclosed sum and began work as head of research there and a spot on the Kashan Systems board of directors.

During the Imperial occupation of Kashan, Nikolai reportedly plotted with the Imperials and one by one the board of directors was chased away or killed until only Arkanian and Nacirem remained. Once Nacirem was captured, Arkanian claimed the seat of power of Kashan Systems and the PDF for himself.

He quickly arranged a treaty with the Imperials handing over Kashan to them and in turn, Moff Uhlmann made him Imperial governor of Kashan. Succesively he reportedly placed bounties on all of his friends including Daphne Avena, the g irl he fell in love with.

After throwing his best friend and business partner, Sansuke Oni off the roof of the Kashan Systems building, he proceeded to capture Ms Avena as well as Mona Lioncourt who was summarily executed on the roof as well. After Daphne escaped his grasp he concentrated his efforts upon overthrowing Moff Uhlmann and taking the sector for himself.

When Uhlmann had an "unfortunate accident," Arkanian took over swiftly, claiming the sector for himself as Moff.
