Characters D6 / Fleet Admiral Essen Balher (

Fleet Admiral Essen Balher

Fleet Admiral Essen Balher served as Emperor Weji Ynehtam's executive officer on board of his flagships - both the Devastator and then the Eclipse. The emperor chose Balher for this position due to his extreme loyalty to the Empire and his harsh attitude.

Balher commanded respect through fear and was not known for his being a forgiving man. Emperor Ynehtam rarely interfered with Balher's work and was often times pleased with how well the crew remained loyal through Balher's excellent use of fear as a tool.

Balher was, however, despised by the members of the Imperial High Command due to near constant conflicts with him. Those in the High Command knew that they couldn't touch Balher, and Balher also realized this.

Unfortunately for the Fleet Admiral, he was killed as his shuttle was destroyed by unmarked raiders nearly seven years following the Battle of Endor.
