Imperial Intelligence Adjustments Agents

Imperial Intelligence agents are the shadow warriors of the Empire: behind-the-scenes fighters with a reputation for doing the impossible. Every day. Before breakfast.

Intel agents are the special operatives that the Ubiquorate uses for whatever clandestine "dirty work" that needs done, without having to go to the bother of requesting permission from the Emperor or his advisors. Espionage, covert intelligence gathering, extraction or execution or possible security risks, procuring needed technology - whatever tasks the Ubiquorate lay before them, Intel agents got the job done.

Adjustments is the most elite branch of Imperial Intelligence. It consists of agents who receive their orders directly and in person from the Ubiquorate. No record of their orders is ever kept, and no mission files exist within Sector Plexus for these agents.

Whenever the Ubiquorate feels a critical situation has slipped from the control of Imperial Intelligence, and that the situation is beyond the normal capabilities of the bureaus but not yet completely hopeless, Adjustments is called in to restore order. The Ubiquorate briefs the Adjustment agent or team on the problem and what resources are available to solve it. Adjustments then solves the problem.
