"Grand Admiral Thrawn" Division Soldiers

The "Grand Admiral Thrawn" Division was created after the Battle of Yavin by the Imperial Navy. Being a dedicated ground engagement force for the Navy, the "Grand Admiral Thrawn" Division was highly regarded as one of the best divisions of the Galactic Civil War.

There really was no reason for the Imperial Navy to have a dedicated ground engagement force, other than the fact that this was Grand Admiral Thrawn's personal undertaking. The "Grand Admiral Thrawn" Division was one of the only divisions that both Stormtroopers and StormElite shock troops were more-or-less promoted to, because of the division's elite status.

The division was always well equipped, and had a favorite status within the Imperial Armed Forces due to the high political status of Grand Admiral Thrawn. And also, because the division performed so well in combat meant that keeping the division well supplied would only benefit the Empire.

The only thing limiting the "Grand Admiral Thrawn" Division's success was a complex chain of command, as they fell under both Imperial Navy and StormElite jurisdiction. However, this was a minor problem for the division, with their excellent combat record showing this.

The "Grand Admiral Thrawn" Division fought on the Commonwealth Front, where it was the only non-StormElite Imperial division present. The combat experience it learned during the bitter Commonwealth fighting led it gain elite status towards the end of the Galactic Civil War, when the division fought on in the Core Worlds, in attempts to defend Coruscant from Rebel invaders. The "Grand Admiral Thrawn" Division fought until the bitter end, and of course fought during the Thrawn Era Campaign after the Battle of Endor.

The typical uniform for "Grand Admiral Thrawn" Division soldiers includes a dark-blue Imperial Navy tunic, camouflage trousers, pullover StormElite-style camouflage smock, and scaled-down camouflage field helmet with white Imperial Emblem insignia on the left side.
