Description: Kutu was a humanoid Sith Master who trained Lola in the ways of the dark side, and hunted her down when she abandoned the Order in search of a peaceful life. He wielded a red lightsaber with an unstable blade, which crackled and sparked when ignited which included a sword shaped design in both the blade and hilt.

Biography

Early life

Kutu was the Sith Master to his apprentice Lola, who of which later abandoned him and the Sith intending to follow her own path. This then lead Kutu on a search for his former apprentice to keep the Sith from being revealed to people of the likes of the Jedi Order. Some point in his early life he also required a respirator to be installed to his body for unknown reasons.

Reunion And Death

Eventually finding Lola he triggered a sensor alert from Beacon 8, luring Lola to him. In which she escaped, Kutu's droid's chased after her before being destroyed by Lola and her droid E2. Kutu eventually caught up, breaking E2 apart with ease through the force, forcing Lola into her base in which the two dueled. Kutu offered Lola to join him once more and if she didn't the only escape she had was by following the Rule of Two and killing him to become the Master. Eventually Lola got the better of Kutu, striking him down. In which he told her that she was the Sith Master now, before disintegrating to ashes.

Legacy

Lola left the planet soon after there duel, finding comfort that she had defeated her former Sith Master and that she was now the master. Claiming that she could now create her own path.

Personality and traits

Kutu was a strong follower of the Sith and Rule of Two, going far enough to make sure that there existence was not revealed through Lola after she abandoned the Sith.

Powers and abilities

Kutu was an extremely powerful force user, capable of violently ripping apart E2 with ease.
