Characters D6 / Relat Mani (Human Jedi)

Relat Mani

In his prime, Relat Mani was a powerful Jedi Knight. As he advanced to the rank of Jedi Master, the Empire began its rise. His friends and fellow Jedi were either being killed off or disappearing at alarming rates. He realized his own existance was in serious jeopardy.

Like a handful of other Jedi across the galaxy, Relat went into hiding. However, unlike many of the other hiding Jedi, he wasn't waiting and watching for the right moment to rise up again and destroy the evil Empire, he had lost all hope.

He moved quietly from planet to planet, sector to sector, never staying in one place for too long. He was very careful with his movements, always straying from any watchful Imperial eyes and always taking up residence in unpopulated or lowly populated areas. He never used his Jedi skills in public and in fact, only used them enough in private to keep his practice up.

Eventually he found his way into the Palvar Sector, moving between a few star systems before running into a young Twi'lek female by the name of Fihr Rhain on the planet Kashan.

While Kashan was known widely through the sector, it was self reliant and apparently had at least a mild toleration for Force sensitive citizens. After several weeks of living out of an abandoned apartment building, Relat finally confronted Fihr, whose presence he had felt since first arriving on Kashan.

He was pleased, he found that the young woman revitalized him and made him regain the hope he so long ago abandonded. He took her as his apprentice and practiced basic Force skills with her for several weeks.

Unfortunately, Rhain had many enemies, and several took notice of Relat and his training of her. During a pleasant encounter at a local tavern, a rail gun round burst through the wall and struck Relat in the head, killing him instantly. He appeared before Rhain, in the form of a spirit which only she could see, and comforted her, instructing her to continue her training and bring back the Jedi Order.
