Characters D6 / Android 43 (Human Replica D

Android 43

Android 43 is one of two Temere robotics Corporation, Gattaca Human replica Androids, to have gone renegade. The Gattaca series is designed to resemble humans, or any other race, custom rodered, perfectly. Android 43 and her 'brother' Android 42 went renegade and began to think for themselves. They repogrammed themeselves somewhat and had natural personalities as if they were ordinary people. Android 43 has a female personality and apperance. She looks like beautiful yuong girl with chin length blonde hair and ice blue eyes. She wears a black jumpsuit with white sleves, with black stripes. sewn on.
Over that she wears a denym vest and a skirt and brown leather boots. She has a confusing personality alternating between the personality of a typical 18 year old female who likes to shop for clothes and have fun, and a dangerous killer that the Temere Corporation had programed her to be. She has dangerous combat skills and although she can use blaster and firearm weapons with great accuracy, she prefers to fight hand to hand with ehr martial arts skills.
