Characters D6 / Verdant Security Force Pilot

Verdant Security Force Pilot

Once the Verdant Security Force was etablsihed, they drew better pilots and evben set up well structured training programs taught by experienced pilots. It was all aprt of an upward trend in Verdant's strength. It looked as if Verdant mgiht become the next Rancor Munitions or MetaCorp and this scared people. However everyone was too tied up with toehr concerns to really do anything about ti, especialy with Verdant bribing Imperials elft and right, and selling them good products.
Even the Hutts were supportive of the company but very wary. They didn't want to be tying a noose around their own fat necks by aiding the company too much. The VSF Pilots tend tof avor, and use quite often, the SA-43 Hammerhead fighter.
