Background: A tattoo artist droid operated on Borgo Prime during 9 ABY. They were present when SM-33, Wim, Neel, Fern, and KB attempted to escape Vane as he and other pirates chased them through the spaceport.

Biography
The droid served as a tattoo artist aboard the shadowport Port Borgo during the New Republic Era. While in the middle of one session in 9 ABY, as they were tattooing the Desilijic insignia on the upper arm of a Klatooinian, the droid SM-33 crashed into them causing them to mess up their work -- much to the chagrin of their client.

Personality and traits
Being a droid and therefore lacking skin, the droid could not tattoo itself in the traditional sense. Their plating was instead covered in a variety of soldered "tattoos."
