Equipment D6 / Peezo (Stimulant)

Name: Peezo
Type: Stimulant
Found: Coruscant, Niamos
Edible by: Humans
Effects: Stimulant
Availability: 2
Cost: 25 (per dose)
Game Effects: When consumed it gives a +2D bonus to resist the effects of tiredness and exhaustion. However if regularly taken the user must make a Stamina (moderate) test, or the effects drop by 1D, and become a -1D penalty to all skills when not taken (making the user dependent on them to avoid the penalty), until the pills are not taken for sufficient time (Gamemasters decision) and a Stamina (difficult) test is succeeded. If taken over a extreme period, then the Gamemaster may reduce the effects, and increase the penalty.

Description: Peezos were a form of legal stimulants that came in the form of pills. They were popular on planets such as Coruscant and Niamos.

Description
Peezos were a legal stimulant that came in the form of pills. They were sold in small cylindrical containers on Coruscant and on Niamos.

History
Windi, a human who slept with Cassian Andor while he was on Niamos in 5 BBY, asked the latter to run buy more Revnog and Peezos when he went out, since they were out of both. A holographic ad saying "TASTY PEEZOS" in Aurebesh was featured in a building on Coruscant during the same year. Kellen, the owner of the Mina-Rau General Store, informed a visiting Imperial Army trooper that they did carry Peezos when asked during 4 BBY In 3 BBY, Andor and his partner Bix Caleen bought a small container of Peezos from Samo's, a bodega on Coruscant.
