Description: Bokar was a humanoid Sith who served Darth Krayt's Galactic Empire during the Second Imperial Civil War. In 137 ABY, Bokar and the Sith Yuln were sent to the planet Agamar to search for surviving enemies following a battle between Sith forces and an allied group of Jedi and Imperial Knights. Three days after the Sith attacked Agamar, Bokar and Yuln were killed by Jedi Master Rasi Tuum and Imperial Knight Azlyn Rae, respectively.

Biography

Bokar, a humanoid Sith, served in the Sith Order of Dark Lord of the Sith Darth Krayt during the Second Imperial Civil War. In 138 ABY, Sith–Imperial forces attacked the planet Agamar, intending to capture or kill exiled Emperor Roan Fel. Bokar and fellow Sith Yuln were dispatched to the surface of Agamar after the battle to search for Fel and eliminate any of his surviving Imperial Knights and Jedi.

Three days after the attack on Agamar, as they were searching for survivors of the battle, Yuln informed Bokar that all the remaining Jedi and Imperial Knights were deceased. The two Sith began arguing about the strength of the Sith, Jedi, and Imperial Knights who had fallen during the battle, but they were interrupted by Jedi Master Rasi Tuum, who slew Bokar. Yuln was killed by a surprise attack from the Imperial Knight Azlyn Rae.

Personality and traits

Bokar believed that every Jedi and Imperial Knight casualty on Agamar proved that the Sith were superior to both organizations and that the Sith who perished in the fighting were "weaklings" who deserved to be discarded from the One Sith's ranks. The humanoid had long black hair and red-rimmed yellow irises, the latter of which was a trait of users of the dark side of the Force.

Equipment

Bokar's body was covered in red and black Sith tattoos, with a piercing in the left ear. The Sith wore black armor with a black cloak and robes and also owned a lightsaber.
