Creatures D6 / Zering T-Shaa

Zering T'Shaa

The Zering T'Shaa, or Dark Hunters, are quite possibly the most fearsome of all the predators on Resklir for one reason: They travel in packs. You will very rarely see a Zering separate from its herd, and they hunt in groups of anywhere from three to seven.

The Zering are a largish predator, measuring 7 ft in length and 4 ft in height. Their abdomins are covered in heavy scales, while their skulls are exoskeletal to prevent heavy injury. While having two hind legs, the Zering have a large tentacle-like front 'arm', that can grasp objects. Also, this tentacle is studded with multiple razor-sharp spines which can be launched at an opponent at long range, or be slashed at them at close range.
