Droids D6 / RanCorp Body Guard Droid

RanCorp Body Guard Droid

These droids were built to give people a surprising hidden defense. The droids are totally loyal to their owners and are immune to conventional restraing bolts. They have hidden arsenal that springs forth from various positions and only then will the attacker realize it's not a servant droid. It is a perfect likeness and thus can't be picked out from real servant droids of that model.
